Gross Receipts Tax Exemption

The University of New Mexico (UNM), is an agency of the state of New Mexico. In accordance with state Statutes, section 7-9-54, sales of Tangible Personal Property to the University of New Mexico are specifically exempted from the Gross Receipts Tax.

This certification is consistent with the state Statutes 7-9-5 and 7-9-43(8) and issued in place of a 'Nontaxable Transaction Certificate.' This letter may be retained by the seller as evidence that sales of tangible personal property to the University are deductible from the seller's gross receipts. A seller may also document a deductible sale to a government agency through the retention of a purchase order, a copy of the payment check or other documentation that supports the sale.

This exemption does not apply to the purchase of services, lease of property or items purchased for a construction project for which a gross receipts tax amount is identified on the University's purchase order.

PAYMENT OF INVOICES, which includes a Gross Receipts Tax charge contrary to 7-9-54(A), will be paid after deduction of any Gross Receipts Tax amount charged.
